Clear Thinking Group offers a two day diagnostic which will identify ways in which you may improve your company's processes and procedures.

One or more of our consultants will visit your company and perform the diagnostic. We would work with your management team to identify opportunities to streamline processes and efficiencies in the following areas:

- Operations
- Customer Service
- Information Technology
- Supply Chain
- Inventory Management
- Buying / Purchasing

We use a STEP methodology (outlined below) to perform the diagnostic. We will present our findings to you within a few days following the diagnostic.

Success Stories:

- 40% Decrease in non-value added task time
- 25% Increase in productivity by moving towards industry best practices
- 20% increase in productivity by moving operations toward lean methodologies
- 15% Reduction in operational costs
- 10% Reduction in labor costs

Benefits:

Learn where your company can make operational improvements which can:
